DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

In regards to claim 12, it recites "reversing a state of the inversion signal after applying the image data to the odd pixels" and "reversing a state of the common voltage after supplying the common voltage to the odd and even pixels". However as can be seen in Figures 4 and 6, the reversing of the state of the inversion signal occurs after supplying a row of odd pixels and the reversing of the state of the common voltage occurs after supplying a row of odd and even pixels.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regards to claim 12, it recites "reversing a state of the inversion signal after applying the image data to the odd pixels" and "reversing a state of the common voltage after supplying the common voltage to the odd and even pixels". However as can be seen in Figures 4 and 6, the reversing of the state of the inversion signal occurs after supplying a row of odd pixels and the reversing of the state of the common voltage occurs after supplying a row of odd and even pixels. Therefore, it is unclear whether or not the reversing of the state of the inversion signal occurs after supplying a row of odd pixels or all odd pixels. Also, it is unclear whether or not the reversing of the state of the common voltage occurs after supplying a row of odd and even pixels or all odd and even pixels.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Examiner was unable to find a reference or combination of references the teach the limitation of "... the signal controller changes a state of the inversion signal between an end of the transmission of the first image data and a start of the transmission of the second image data and the polarity of the common voltage between an end of the application of the data voltages for a row and a start of the application of the data voltages for a next row".

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
